AMENDED PROTECTIVE ORDER

The court orders the following amended protective order pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26\(c\) to safeguard confidential information:

1. As used in the Amended Protective Order, these terms have the following meanings:

“Attorneys” means counsel of record;

“Confidential” documents are documents designated pursuant to paragraph 2;

“Documents” are all materials within the scope of Fed. R. Civ. P. 34;

“Outside Vendors” means messenger, copy, coding, and other clerical-services vendors not employed by a party or its Attorneys; and “Written Assurance” means an executed document in the form attached as Exhibit A.

2. A Party may designate a document “Confidential” to protect information within the scope of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26\(c\).

3. All Confidential documents, along with the information contained in the documents, shall be used solely for the purpose of this action, and no person receiving such documents shall, directly or indirectly, use, transfer, disclose, or communicate in any way the documents or their contents to any person other than those specified in paragraph 4. Any other use is prohibited.

4. Access to any Confidential document shall be limited to:

(a) the Court and its staff;

(b) Attorneys, their law firms, and their Outside Vendors;

- (c) persons shown on the face of the document to have authored or received it;
- (d) court reporters and videographers retained to transcribe testimony;
- (e) the parties;
- (f) outside independent persons (i.e., persons not currently or formerly employed by, consulting with, or otherwise associated with any party) who are retained by a party or its Attorneys to provide assistance as mock jurors or focus group members or the like, or to furnish technical or expert services, and/or to give testimony in this action;
- (g) persons who may be called to give testimony in any capacity in this action who agree and sign and execute a Written Assurance agreement attached hereto, marked Exhibit A and incorporated herein by this reference;
- (h) Board members, trustees, employees, or advisors of other participants in the US Bank securities lending program who agree and sign and execute the above-referenced Written Assurance agreement; and
- (i) Other potential witnesses or members of the Short Term Bond Fund at issue in this case who agree and sign and execute the above-referenced Written Assurance agreement.

5. Third parties producing documents in the course of this action may also designate documents as "Confidential," subject to the same protections and constraints as the parties to the action. A copy of the Amended Protective Order shall be served along with any subpoena served in connection with this action. All documents produced by such third parties, pursuant to subpoena, shall be treated as "Confidential" for a period of 14 days from the date of their production, and during that period any party may designate such documents as "Confidential" under the terms of the Amended Protective Order.

6. Each person appropriately designated pursuant to paragraphs 4(f), 4(g), 4(h) and/or 4(i) above to receive and/or review Confidential information shall execute a "Written Assurance" in the form attached as Exhibit A prior to receiving and/or reviewing any such document. Opposing counsel shall be notified at least 5 business days prior to disclosure to any such person who is known to be an employee or agent of, or consultant to, any competitor of or any customer of the party whose designated documents are sought to be disclosed. Such notice shall provide a reasonable description of the outside independent person to whom disclosure is sought sufficient to permit objection to be made. If a party objects in writing to such disclosure within 5 business days after receipt of notice, no disclosure shall be made until the party seeking disclosure obtains the prior approval of the Court or the objecting party.

7. All depositions or portions of depositions taken in this action that contain confidential information may be designated "Confidential" and thereby obtain the protections accorded other "Confidential" documents. Confidentiality designations for depositions shall be made either on the record or by written notice to the other party within 14 days of receipt of the transcript. Unless otherwise agreed, depositions shall be treated as "Confidential" during the 14-day period following receipt of the transcript. The deposition of any witness (or any portion of such deposition) that encompasses Confidential information shall be taken only in the presence of persons who are qualified to have access to such information.

8. Any party who inadvertently fails to identify documents as "Confidential" shall, promptly upon discovery of its oversight, provide written notice of the error and substitute appropriately-designated documents. Any party receiving such improperly-designated documents shall retrieve such documents from persons not entitled to receive those documents and, upon receipt of the substitute documents, shall return or destroy the improperly-designated documents.

9. If a party files a document containing Confidential information with the Court, it shall do so in compliance with the electronic case filing procedures for the District of Nebraska. Prior to disclosure at trial or a hearing of materials or information designated "Confidential," the parties may seek further protections against public disclosure from the Court.

10. Any party may request a change in the designation of any information designated "Confidential." Any such document shall be treated as designated until the change is completed. If the requested change in designation is not agreed to, the party seeking the change may move the Court for appropriate relief, providing notice to any third party whose designation of produced documents as "Confidential" in the action may be affected. The party asserting that the material is Confidential shall have the burden of proving that the information in question is within the scope of protection afforded by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26\(c\).

11. Within 60 days of the termination of this action, including any appeals, each party shall either destroy or return to the opposing party all documents designated by the opposing party as "Confidential," and all copies of such documents, and shall destroy all extracts and/or data taken from such documents. Each party shall provide a certification as to such return or destruction within the 60-day period. However, Attorneys shall be entitled to retain a set of all documents filed with the Court and all correspondence generated in connection with the action.

12. Any party may apply to the Court for a modification of the Amended Protective Order, and nothing in this Amended Protective Order shall be construed to prevent a party from seeking such further provisions enhancing or limiting confidentiality as may be appropriate.

13. No action taken in accordance with the Amended Protective Order shall be construed as a waiver of any claim or defense in the action or of any position as to discoverability or admissibility of evidence.

14. The obligations imposed by the Amended Protective Order shall survive the termination of this action.

DATED this 26th day of April, 2011.
